

Steps to Becoming a Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractor
a/k/a

Notary Signing Agent in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, DC
Saturday, November 11, 2017

What Is It Like to Conduct a Mortgage Document Closing?

Calling ALL Prospective Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractors a/k/a Notary Signing Agents!

You are invited to attend the 6th Annual Maryland Notary Public Day program and attend a FREE informational session scheduled for ALL who desire to know the steps to becoming a Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractor a/k/a Notary Signing Agent in Maryland, Washington, DC, and Virginia.

The Title Insurance Producer Independent Contractor (TIPIC) aka Notary Signing Agent (NSA) profession has developed into a viable opportunity for Notaries Public seeking to earn part-time or fulltime income. As an independent contractor, Notaries Public can assist in home loan closings by contracting document signing services with “closing agents” to ensure that real estate loan documents are properly signed by the borrower, notarized by the Notary and returned to the closing agent for processing in a timely manner.

This 45-minute session covers:

- Educational requirements
- Benefits of the profession
- Start-up and maintenance costs

After taking this class, you will be able to:

- Select pre-licensing company offering
- Determine short- and long-term costs
- Follow the steps to becoming a NSA/TIPIC
